

Biographical Sketch

The Reverend Dr. Patrick Jonnathan Walker

Reverend Dr. Patrick Jonnathan Walker is a native of Washington, DC, and serves as the Senior Pastor of The New Macedonia Baptist Church. A gifted preacher and administrator, he began preaching at the age of 15 and has served in pastoral ministry for over three decades. He is a graduate of Washington Bible College in Lanham, Maryland, and holds a Master of Divinity from the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University in Richmond, Virginia. Pastor Walker successfully defended his Doctor of Ministry dissertation in February 2026 at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio.

Reverend Walker served for ten years at Destiny Baptist Church in Martinsburg, West Virginia, before becoming the third pastor of The New Macedonia Baptist Church in 2003. He is a highly sought-after preacher and teacher who has led revivals, workshops, and conferences across the nation and abroad. He is the former president of both the Missionary Baptist Ministers' Conference of Washington, DC & Vicinity and the Baptist Convention of the District of Columbia and Vicinity.

He is joyfully married to Lady Priscella Walker, and they are the proud parents of two adult children, Maya Bethany and Patrick Jonnathan II.
